

HELIOS

sketchbook

Every creation starts with a dot and line:

Early rough designs of Rhea's jacket.
White, black and red represent the fundamental alchemical colors.

I designed the jackets as if they were 3D printed,
keeping in mind the type of outerwear someone would wear in a 2040
post-apocalyptic world:

More sketches of Rhea's outfit design.
Nice photobomb, Kazu :P

Speaking of Kazu...

Originally, Kazu was going to wear street monk-like clothing, but a black turtle neck and long coat suited him more.

He was originally going to have black skeleton tattoos on his front body.

Although Kato is silent, his tattoos speak a thousand words.

Each one of them has a meaning, which you will learn more of as we progress through the story.

- Cat lovers rejoice!

The color combo of Bebo and Red are my favorite to play with

That roll of paper you see there are early storyboards for webtoon.

Some of the earliest concepts of Bebo when I was 11.

My mother kept all my drawings.
Love you Mom :)

HMNALNS just finished constructing the jacket!

It's an oversize medium
for that street fit.

Yes! There's a potato patch on there (and a Bebo patch that we will reveal in another photoshoot).

There are only 2 of these jackets made.

The winning fan art will win this exclusive HMNALNS jacket.

Deadline is August 28, 2016

Submit your fan art by posting it on either twitter or instagram. Be sure to tag @hmnalns so that we can find them!

Good luck ^_^
